

THE BAND 1969

The band consists of about twenty-four recorders, four kettle drums, one bass drum and a mace. The band attends numerous excursions during the year such as the Girl Guides fete, where we entertained hundreds of people and on Anzac day where we helped to march returned soldiers, from both World Wars, to the R.S.L. Club. We also play at the coming of Christmas, for Rogers. At 1.30 p.m. most days, we march the classes into school. Mrs. Kelly, our band mistress, takes us weekly on Thursdays at 3.00 p.m.

On behalf of the band, we would like to thank Mrs. Kelly for taking us this year.

ANZAC DAY MARCH

On Anzac Day, the Griffith School Band was asked to march from the Narrabundah Shops to the R.S.L. Club. The people that were marching were, in order, the Scottish Band, the C.M.F., Griffith School Band and the Returned Soldiers' Band.

When we arrived at the R.S.L. Club, we formed two lines while the service was being held. The service itself was simple with wreaths being laid, two minutes silence being observed and the Last Post played, after which, a high ranking New Zealand Officer made a speech.

When the ceremony finished, the Band was served with cakes, ice creams and drinks.
