

Future use of Narrabundah sites

A planning study into the future use of the land in Narrabundah has commenced. This includes Gowrie Court (Mcintyre Street) as well as vacant sites at 45 and 51 Jerrabomberra Avenue, Narrabundah.

An important component of this planning study is to gather the local community's views on future uses of these sites, including potential housing types and density. This planning study will inform potential variations to the ACT Territory Plan.

We would like to hear from you.
